

25X1

NSC BRIEFING

8 November 1954

SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM

I. Reactions to announcement of Gen. Collins' mission vary.

- A. Paris officials professed to welcome it, probably hope it signals relaxation of US support for Diem.

State Department
review completed

25X1

- C. General Ely feared mission would be construed as evidence US intent to "take over;" suggested he might have to leave.

- D. But later, Ely's deputy, Daridan, described mission as logical outcome of Washington understandings.

- E. Said French willingness fully to support Diem as "permanent solution" conditioned on premier's making peace with army and getting capable Interior Minister (no doubt Tam).

II. Bao Dai still very much in the act.

- A. Saw Collins mission as useful vehicle for laying down line to Diem about being more "co-operative."

25X1

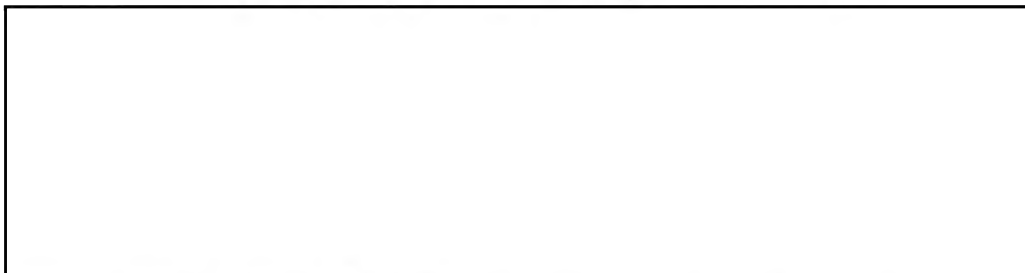

25X1

25X1

-2-

- B. Says he regards self as father of naughty children that must be brought into line.

25X1

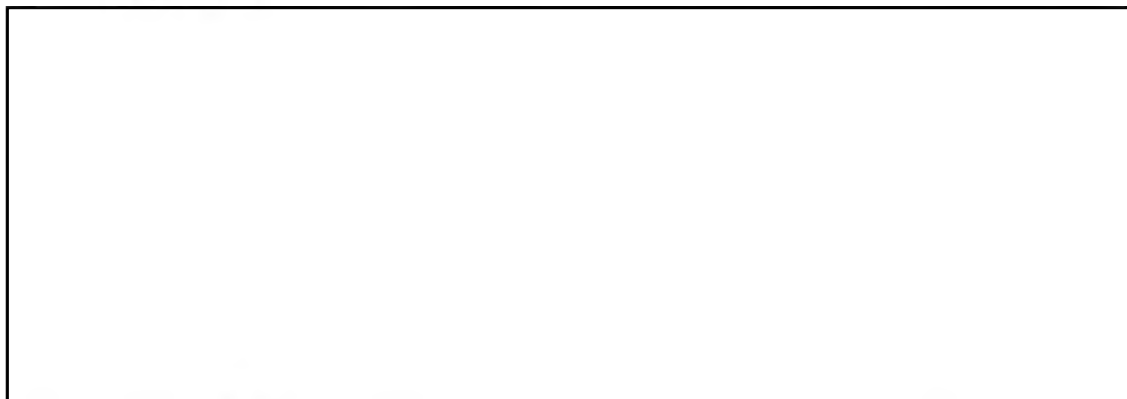

- D. Diem admits Bao Dai's "support" has large Price tag.

III. Meanwhile, Buu Hoi getting bigger than ever build-up.

- A. French press giving him big play.
B. He has backing of some of Mendes-France's principal advisers.

25X1

IV. French has several possible motives for backing Buu Hoi.

- A. One is, possibly, simply to keep pot boiling, maintaining maximum room for maneuver.
B. But more important is fact Buu Hoi's neutralist views, past association with Viet Minh jibe with French desire to remain on good terms with Viet Minh.
C. Our embassy in Saigon describes him as "incredibly Naive," though he would probably be easily manipulated.

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/10/21 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000400030015-4

-3-

- D. Diem describes him as not immoral, but amoral, a "sieve for money" who maintains two French mistresses, and occasionally others.
- E. He told Diem a year ago he was for Viet Minh because it was efficient but if more efficient government turned up he would support that.

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/10/21 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000400030015-4